Argentine Republic has passed a compulsory marriage law. Persons of either sex who refuses a "reasonable offer of marriage" are fined $200, and bachelors between the ages of 20 and 80, are required to pay a monthly tax for the privilege to remain single.

At Mt. Sterling court day, there were about 1,500 cattle on the market. The cattle trade was brisk, and about 30 cents higher than last court. Good 1,200lb. cattle brought 4cents. The most of the sales were at $3\frac{1}{2}$ and $3\frac{3}{4}$. Cows and heifers sold at 2 and 3 cents. The horse market was dull. There was a number of mules on the market but sales were slow.

An Exchange says: A young lady asked a naughty editor how to make "not enough" out of the word "enough," and he tells her it is done by transporting the letters into words like this: "Take 3rd, 2nd and 1st letters of the word enough for the first word, and the 6th, 4th and 5th for the second word, and you will have two words that signify something that is not enough for most young ladies.

A man in Richmond traded a horse to a barlow knife and afterward sold the knife for ten cents.
